

UniMi Online 2nd level Post-Graduate Master in GLOBAL HEALTH

Programme

- Introduction to Global Health
- Quantitative methods in global health: epidemiology & biostatistics
- Research, evidence and policy making
- Health data generation, analysis and use
- Global burden of disease
- Social and economic determinants of health
- The UN SDGs from a multidisciplinary perspective
- Global infectious challenges
- Global health challenges
- Advocacy and communication for global health promotion
- International cooperation and humanitarian action as tools in global health
- Health systems – Universal coverage, social protection, non-state sector
- Essentials of health economics
- Principles of health management
- Innovations in Global Health: the “omics” and digital health
- Global Health at the Human-Animal-Ecosystem Interface
- Global health and the law: international and national regulations
- Global health diplomacy, governance and policies

Requirements

- MD, DVM, MSc or MA degree in any discipline, from health and biomedical sciences to economics, social sciences, anthropology, international relations, law, ecology, agronomy, diplomacy, political sciences, communication, management, etc., from any country;
- Academic and/or professional knowledge of written and spoken English (no English certification is required. However, English is the official language of the MGH);
- Regular access to internet connection.

It is through the education of future decision-makers and leaders that health and access to it will be prioritized in every sector where choices are made. To put it in simple words, we aim at building “health-sensitive” young generations of professionals!

1 year

November–October

60 ECTS

2 semesters

18 modules

including pre-recorded lectures, live webinars, exercises, group work and case studies

1-week online internship

1-month internship in low resource settings

Tuition fees

6.500 EUR in two installments:

- 1,516.00 EUR to be paid when finalizing the enrolment
- 5,000.00 EUR to be paid by the end of the first semester

Scholarships based on merit will be awarded after the assessment test of the first modules.

Faculty

70 professors and experts from Italian and international Institutions.